

Mrs Parlow.

Calgary, Alberta, Canada,
2nd February 1896.

I have known Mrs C. Parlow of this City for many years, both when a Teacher in the Public Schools here and subsequently. Mrs Parlow, owing to changes within the circle of her family life, has it in view to seek her own livelihood by her own efforts in some larger centre. In this resolve she will have the earnest sympathy of a great many friends and wellwishers here, amongst whom she has always held high place as regards esteem and good wishes. It is hoped that her talents and ability will find recognition for her in some congenial sphere of occupation, amongst Christian people, and under conditions which will enable her to provide sustenance for herself and little girl.

I am, with best wishes for her success and in hope that she will meet with encouragement in her courageous endeavor,

J. C. Herdman, B.D.,
Pastor of Knox Church, Calgary

Commended to all who may be able to help Mrs. Parlow to a suitable & congenial means of livelihood. J.C.H.
